The Latest Tools for Difficult Children Seminar With Nancy Thomas

30 & 31 July 2011

The butterfly is a symbol of hope and change and that is what we believe for every one of our traumatized children!

Who is Nancy Thomas?

Nancy Thomas, mother, grandmother, adoptive mom and foster mom, has worked as a Therapeutic Parenting Specialist with children who had AD, RAD, PTSD, Aspergers, and ritualistic abuse, traumatized due to abuse, FASD, ADD, ADHD, ODD, Tourette's syndrome and Bipolar Disorder. Nancy and her husband Jerry live in the mountains of Colorado in a home centered on healing the hearts of children. She has shared her life and home for over 30 years with severely emotionally disturbed children. She has an 85% success rate with these high-risk children, which is one of the highest in the country. An author and educator specializing in bonding and conscience development, she has trained over 50,000 parents and professionals throughout the world in her effective methods.

Nancy is the founder of the non-profit organization Stop America's Violent Youth (SAVY). She dreams of having people united with peace, love, and laughter. Nancy believes we can make a difference and so do we!
